

The Property Market in France

The property market in France is seen as a safe and secure investment for both those looking to relocate/retire or for those looking for a holiday home/investment.

France is currently in the top three to five destinations for UK buyers depending on whose survey you read. The reasons for this are as follows:

- Easy access via low cost airline's
- Easy access via Euro Star
- Easy access via road
- Stable economy
- Giving good return on investment in real estate
- Food and fine wine's
- Cultural Heritage
- Climate
- Diversity of terrain and landscape

The legal system in France is heavily biased in the favor of the buyer and not the seller. Therefore giving greater security and piece of mind.